

Inflatables for all occasions “Because Fun Matters”

JFB Entertainment's are the South West's leading specialists for inflatable products and organised events.

Our main aim is to provide quality entertainment combined with our great experience that will make your event a true success. Our days are intended to provide a constructive and positive adventure for all participants because MOST OF ALL FUN MATTERS.

At JFB we have a wide variety of fantastic products ranging from rodeo bull to sumo wrestling to bouncy castles and many more.

JFB Entertainment's can also provide team events and classic competitions like 'It's a knock out', Human Table Football and the big challenge as used by the Royal Marines.

We have a full range of other activities for corporate events, motivation, team building, fundraising and fun.

Our trained team members can attend all events. Insurance regulations and risk assessments are always strictly adhered to.

JFB Entertainments LTD are members of the British Inflatables Hirers Association.

It's a Knock Out

It's a knockout is a fantastic team competition that consists of large inflatable events and terrific games.

It's a knockout consists of between 5 to 8 games for between 2 and 32 teams consisting of up to 10 members.

JFB entertainment will provide all of the equipment for the event and will also organise and referee the games. This event usual last between 2 and 3 hours but we are more then happy to adjust to suit your needs.

We can also incorporate any of our standard events along with the specialist it's a knockout events to provide you with your perfect competition.
